

Biographical Note

Marita Bergendahl

Marita Bergendahl

Is partner and senior consultant at Sandholm Associates and at Sandholm Excellence Center in Portugal. She is specialised in change management, leadership of improvements and IT-management and have been working within different roles for more than 20 years. Bergendahl has a Master Science from the Royal Institute of Technology and a degree in psychology of leadership within Gestalt. Bergendahl has been working for many years in the Swedish Armed Forces with responsibility for ERP systems (Enterprise Resource Planning) and IT- and information security. She also has deep experience of management and business development from many other organizations.