

Biographical Note

Railson Motta

Railson Motta

Graduated in Chemistry specialization degree and MSc in Metrology & Quality.

Experience coordinating human and material resources in multinational industry, research centers and production quality control.

Working since 2004 in Brazilian federal institutions, participated in the implementation of international conventions and cooperation agreements; energy research. Currently at National Institute of Metrology, Quality and Technology – Inmetro, developing quality and metrological monitoring modernization activities.