

Biographical Note

Ana Ramalho

Ana Isabel de Bettencourt Furtado Roçadas Ramalho de Matos Almeida

Academic Qualifications: Degree in Law and Master in Legal-Political Science from the Faculty of Law of the University of Lisbon (June 2006).

Professional Activity: Member of the Board of Portuguese Institute for Quality, I. P., since September 24, 2019. Director of the General Administration Department of the same Institute; Director of Services at the General Secretariat of the Ministry of Economy, Innovation and, subsequently, the Ministry of Economy and Employment, with responsibility for public procurement and patrimony. Exercise of legal advisory functions in the areas of public procurement; human resources; State vehicle management, public procurement and patrimony management, in the extinct General Directorate of Informatics and Support to Tax and Customs Services and extinct General Directorate of Patrimony.