

Biographical Note

Carla Negreiro

Carla Negreiro

Has a degree in Law (1999) from the University of Coimbra, a Postgraduate degree in Local Government Law by the University of Porto (2004) and a Master degree in Municipal Administration (2018) by the School of Public Management, Communication and Tourism of Polytechnic Institute of Bragança (EsACT-IPB).

Now, and since 2003, she is a Senior Technician Jurist in Valpaços municipality, always concerned with public administration, public management, quality management and public services quality, specially at the local level. Thus, and besides her researches in those areas of interest, she has recently participated in IASIA 2019 conference, Lisbon, at the Working Group III: Public Sector Reform, with the paper "Behind the public sector reform: CAF's impacts at Portuguese Municipalities users". She has also assured the review of articles and papers for EURAM 2019 Conference.

