Avelino BRITO MARQUINA

From September 2019, Managing Director of the Spanish Association for Quality AEC.

Mechanical Engineer, MBA, and Certificate in Corporate Governance. With more than 30 years professional experience, I've been a consultant, an Information Systems Manager, and finally, the Managing Director of AENOR, the Spanish standardization institution and a reference certification and training services provider in Spain.

I have held several relevant positions in the Quality Infrastructure environment, such as the President of the Council of Latin American Foundation for Quality (FUNDIBEQ), Member of the Council of the International Standards Organization (ISO), and Member of the Council of the Spanish National Accreditation Entity (ENAC) and the Spanish National Metrology Centre (CEM).

I am AENOR Honorary Member and also Member of the Spanish Compliance Officers Institute.
