

Biographical Note

Mohit Singh

Mohit Singh

Has been employed with the Quality Council of India (QCI) since 2015. He is currently a Deputy Director involved in the Zero Defect Zero Effect (ZED) Certification Project. He is a Masters in Technology and comes with more than 11 years of experience in training & development, software development, strategic planning and execution of projects.

He has represented QCI at several international platforms and has presented papers at EoQ (Slovenia), ARSO (South Africa, Ethiopia, Kenya, etc.) and ICQEM (Spain) amongst others. At the national level too Mohit has showcased ZED at forums like investment summits & events of State Governments, Training of Bankers of India under the Reserve Bank of India initiative, reputed National Industry Chambers like CII, FICCI etc, as well as at Supply Chain meetings of large Enterprises and OEMs. He has been instrumental in engagement of State Governments, RBI & Financial Institutions, Government e-Marketplace etc. for institutionalizing various benefits for ZED rated industry units.

He has previously worked with the Entrepreneurship and Small Business Development Department of the Government of India, apart from various private organizations.