

Biographical Note

Rajesh Maheshwari

---

Mr. Rajesh Maheshwari

A Masters in Chemistry and an MBA, is the CEO of National Accreditation Board for Certification Bodies (NABCB), a constituent Board of Quality Council of India (QCI) and has been working in QCI since 2012. Earlier to this he was the Director of Project Planning & Implementation Division of QCI, and responsible for Conceptualization, Planning & Management of various projects being executed by QCI. Before this, he was responsible for managing Inspection Body Accreditation Program of NABCB as Joint Director. Rajesh has earlier worked for National Accreditation Board for Testing & Calibration Laboratories (NABL), then under the Department of Science & Technology (DST) for more than a decade, managing the Testing and Medical Laboratory Accreditation Programs of NABL.

Rajesh has almost 3 decades of experience in industrial manufacturing as well as in standards, technical regulations, accreditation & conformity assessment. He has multi-disciplinary experience in Quality Assurance & Management, Production & Process Control, Product Development, Project Management etc. He also has experience in International Evaluations & Mutual Recognition Arrangements, Regional Cooperation in Accreditation.

Internationally, Rajesh is an APAC Evaluator for peer evaluation of Accreditation Bodies. Also, he was the WADA Assessor for assessment of Dope Testing Laboratories. He has evaluated Accreditation Bodies in USA, Russia, Sri Lanka etc. Also, he has done projects as an Expert on Accreditation with international organizations like IAEA, UNIDO etc.